FRIDAY, AUGUST 18

TRADE COUNCIL

"I am absolutely out of politics," said Gen. Alger, yesterday. Out of politics until the time comes to elect a successor to Senator McMillan.

ACCORDING to morning dispatches, Republican campaign managers are planning to bring Admiral Dewey to Ohio in time to bolster up the candidacy of Judge Nash, as if the great Admiral would stoop to such small politics.

JUDGE C. R. GRANT of Akron, one of the leaders among the Silver Republicans of 1896, will permit his name to go before the Democratic State convention as a candidate for Justice of the Supreme court. His candidacy is meeting with enthusiastic favor throughout the Western Reserve.—Medina Sentinel.

THE DEMOCRAT is informed by a prominent local Republican close to the councils of his party that Gov. Roosevelt has been brought to Akron to overcome the severe disaffection among local Republicans who disapprove of the Administration's policy of imperialism. Nothing will be neglected to stir up Republican enthusiasm in Summit county, and all for the glory of the great I Am, the ambitious Col. Dick. He will get all the glory.

DISPATCHES to the Plain Dealer from Columbus show that Col. Dick is going to make a special effort to carry Summit county this fall, as he was called down by Hanna two years ago for not having the county better in hand. The opening of the campaign at Akron is a part of Dick's plans in this regard. Everybody knows that this is true. But the voters of Summit county are not going to be influenced by red fire and brass bands in this year of grace. They were duped once and have had time to repent of their mistake.

THE prolonged deadlock over the appointment of City Commissioners is likely to result in one benefit to the people of Akron—it will very likely bring about the repeal of the law next winter. Akron is only going through the same experience that Youngstown had last winter. The Youngstown Probate Judge, like Akron's, insisted on governing the city by proxy, and the deadlock caused by his failure to get his favorites in office lasted for more than eight months. The people will break the Akron deadlock next fall by breaking the authority of Judge Anderson.

DON'T BE HOODWINKED.

The Dobson organ is trying to set Summit county's Democrats to fighting one another on account of the gubernatorial nomination.

It is not necessary to tell the local Democrats how much credence they ought to give to the statements made in the political columns of the Beacon.

In another column of today's DEMOCRAT, Chairman R. L. Andrew tells how he was grossly misrepresented by the Dobson paper last night, and Mayor Young and Clerk Isbell also tell what they think of the Dobsonian lies that were told about them.

At the convention two weeks hence Summit county's Democrats are going to give Judge C. R. Grant an enthusiastic and unanimous endorsement for the nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, and they are going to send a delegation to Zanesville which will use all honorable means to bring about his nomination. And many of Summit county's Democrats, in addition to the regular delegation, will be on hand to urge the nomination of Judge Grant.

The assumption, therefore, in the columns of the Dobson organ, that local Democrats do not know that the gubernatorial contest has no part in determining the selection of delegates, as to do so would injure the candidacy of Judge Grant, denotes even a greater degree of imbecility on the part of our neighbor than Akron people have given it credit for.

Local Democrats will keep their heads level in spite of the stupid attempts of Dobson and his organ to stampede them.

PLEASANT REUNION.

Warner, Thornton and Kepler Families at Lakeside.

The reunion of the Warner, Thornton and Kepler families, held at Lakeside park Thursday, was attended by about 300 persons, and was in every respect a most pleasant event.

Members of the families within the association began to arrive at the park about 9 o'clock in the morning and quite a large crowd remained to eat supper in the grove.

No formal program was enacted. All found pleasure in conversation with their friends. Some of the young people boated on the lake and others indulged in various pastimes to make the occasion pleasant and enjoyable. S. S. Kepler of East Liberty, O., president of the reunion association, was master of ceremonies.

An excellent dinner was served in the large picnic pavilions. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon a business meeting was held. The report of the treasurer showed the association to be in good financial standing, with money in the treasury. S. S. Kepler was re-elected president of the association for the coming year. Abram Warner, of Coventry, was re-elected treasurer; J. A. Kepler, of Franklin, was elected secretary, and present secretary, Cyrus Thornton, of near Akron, assistant.

It was decided to hold the next reunion at Lakeside park the third Thursday in August, 1900.

The oldest man present was John Warner, of Loyal Oak, who is past 80 years of age. His wife was also in attendance upon the reunion. Each are in the enjoyment of good health, and had a good time Thursday.

BANNER DAY.

Successful Outing

Of the Ohio Maccabee's Picnic Association.

Immense Crowd Enjoyed the Event.

Addresses Made by Members of the Order.

Kent Won Ball Games—The Competitive Drill.

The Maccabees of Ohio held their sixth annual picnic at Silver Lake Thursday. It was the most successful outing ever given by this organization. In point of attendance it was the banner day of the season for this resort.

The perfect weather hastened the early arrival of special trains from Alliance, Salem, East Liverpool, Mt. Vernon, Delphos, Canton and Cleveland. At two o'clock by a close estimate the crowd numbered about 11,000. During the morning hours concerts were given at the various stands throughout the grounds by the K. O. T. M. band of Akron, the New Berlin, Benton and Copley bands. At 12 o'clock the entire party adjourned for dinner. Every table on the grounds was taken and many parties were compelled to wait for more room.

The afternoon program consisted of a long line of Athletic contests and speeches by the state officers. The following officers were present and spoke upon the life and social benefits of the order:

Dr. L. E. Sisler, Akron, president of the day; Supreme Commander Hon. H. D. Markey, of Port Huron, Mich.; Supreme L. O. T. M. Commander Mrs. Hallister of Detroit, Mich.; Great Commander Prof. H. M. Parker, superintendent of Elyria, O.; State Record Keeper Ed. L. Young, of Norwalk, O.; State Lady Commander Mrs. Emma S. Olds of Elyria, O., and State Lady Record Keeper Lydia R. DeGroate of Cleveland.

The afternoon sports opened up at 1 o'clock with a ball game between the Kent and New Berlin teams for a purse of $25. Partisans of both clubs were present and at times trouble was narrowly avoided. A very ragged game was played by both teams for several innings, Kent finally winning out in the ninth by opportunely batting. Close decisions in two innings witnessed the withdrawal of Kent from the field. Each time they were however, persuaded to resume play. The teams batted: Kent—Bachtel cf, E. Denning c, Stevens 3b, Spade p, L. Maskrey 2b, J. Dennig lf, Hunt ss, France 1b, Beach rf.

New Berlin—Schiltz 2b, Schick rf, M. Ross p, B. Ross c, Kreighbaum ss, W. J. Evans lf, J. G. Evans cf, Whitman 1b, Saylor 3b.

Score by innings:
New Berlin 0 2 0 1 0 1 0 3 0—7
Kent 2 2 2 0 0 0 1 2 9—9

The two mile and a half bicycle race was run in very slow time and won easily by G. M. Calhoun of Cleveland. John L. Dixon of Akron secured second. Later it was ascertained that Calhoun was a professional and he was disqualified. Dixon was given first prize and F. B. Jenkins of Macedonia second money. The prizes were $10 and $5.

The ladies' competitive drill was the feature of the afternoon and was hotly contested. Four hives were entered. The Favorite Hive of Akron, Ohio, Miss Jennie Carmichael, captain; the Arbutus Hive of Cuyahoga Falls, Mrs. Ora Smith, captain; the Busy Bee Hive of Akron, Miss E. M. Bien, captain, and the Union Guards of Cleveland, Miss Cora B. Davies, captain. Each company
